. . . The Way We Were

*Mem'ries, Light the corners
of my mind,*

Misty water-colored mem'ries of the way we were.

*Scattered pictures of the smiles
we left behind,*

*Smiles
We gave to one another for the way we were.*

Can it be that it was all so simple then?

*Or has time
rewritten every line?*

*If we had the chance to do it
all again,*

*Tell me
Would we, Could we?*

Mem'ries may be beautiful

*And yet,
what's too painful
to remember
we simply choose to forget.*

*And it's the laughter
we will remember whenever we remember,
the way
we were.*

Those are the Seniors . . .

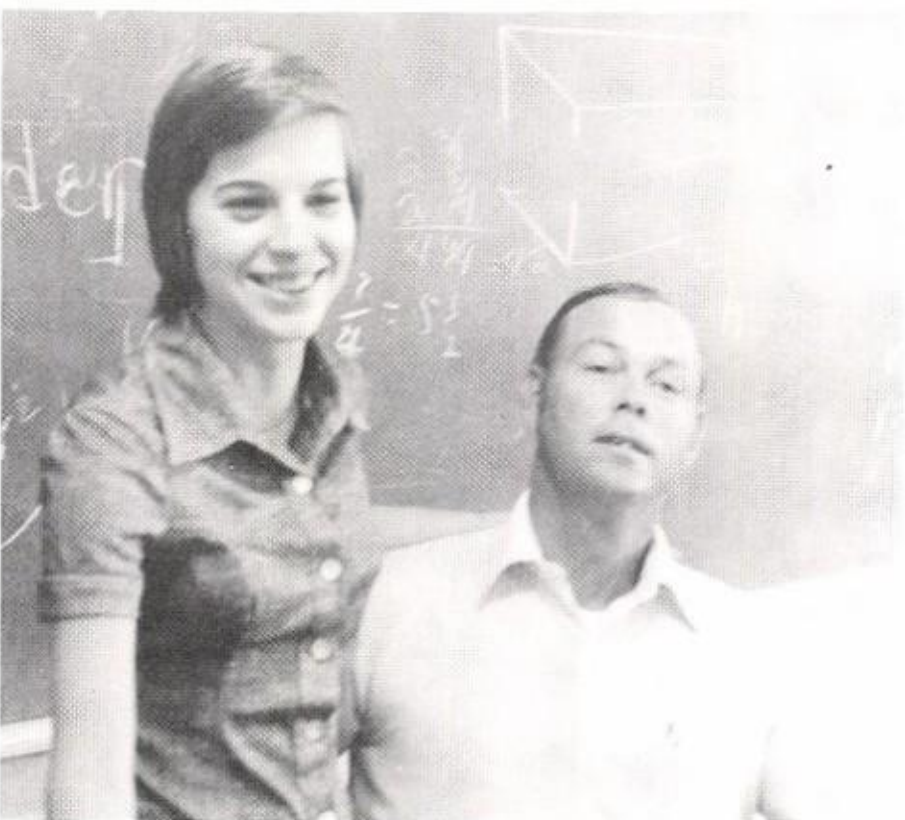

What do YOU think?

My legs are stuck

I'm sick & tired of car trouble

A form of bribery?

Wish something exciting would happen in here

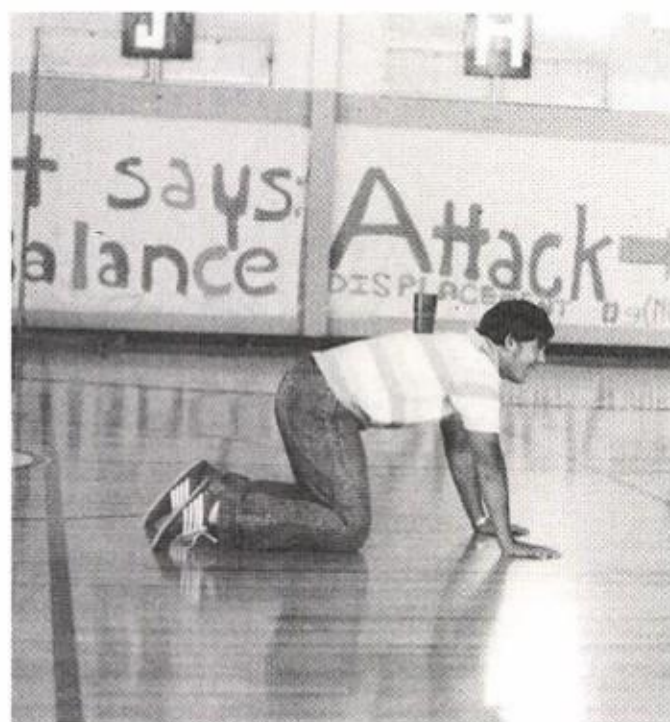

Another exciting evening

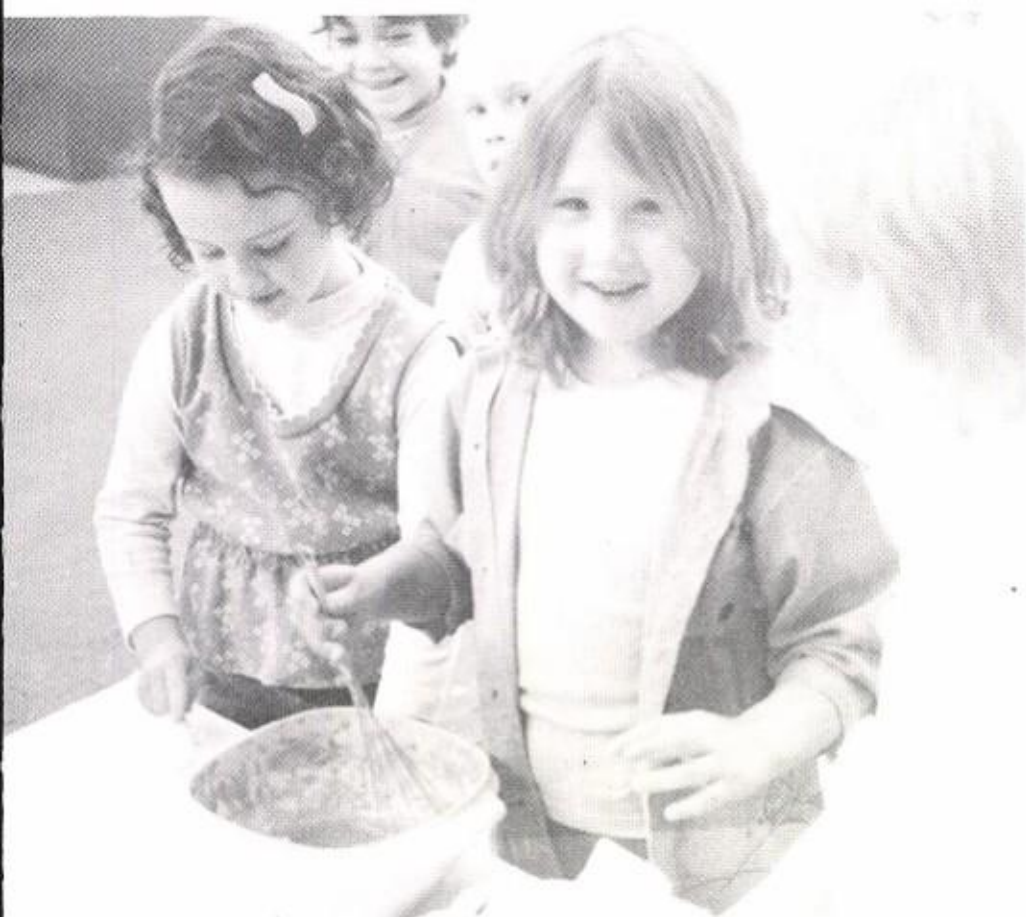

Who's the mystery girl, Ricky?

Craig looks sick

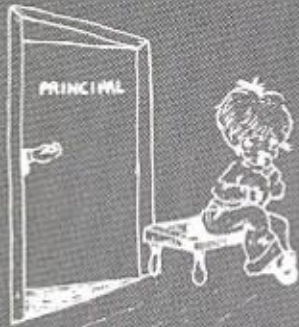

A beast of burden?

Bubble, bubble, toil & trouble

Peek-a-boo!

Look . . .

. . . here comes Santa Claus

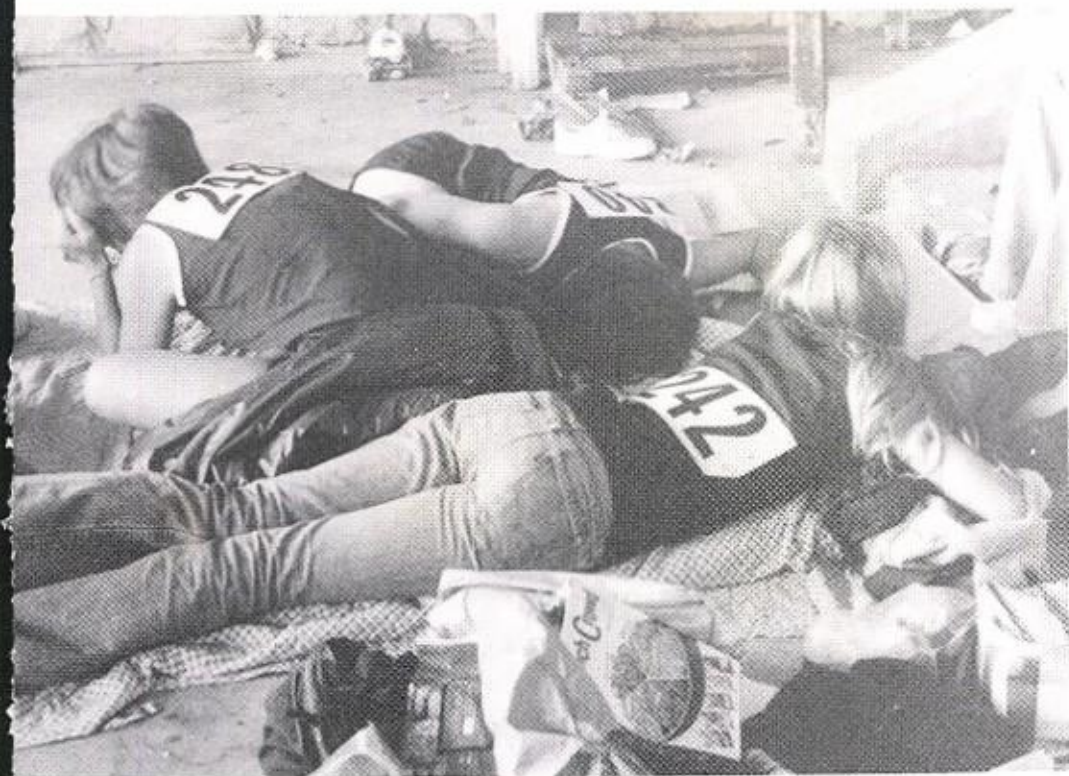

Where?

Where?

Where?

Hit the ground!

That ground's dirty.

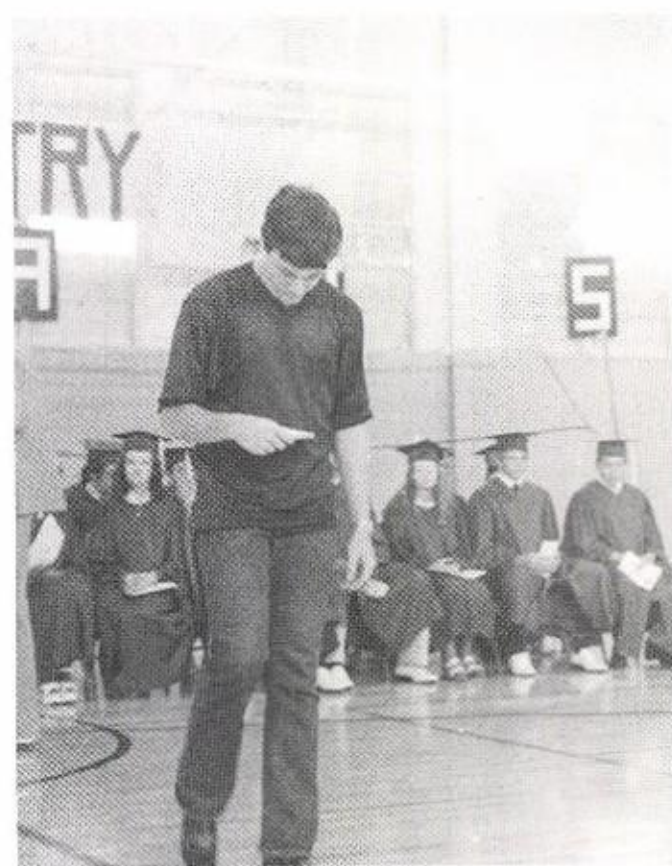

Look, ma! No hands!

Where were you when the lights went out?

Hey, wait for us!

Ah, tweren't nothing

Winners-Poster look-alike contest

Cheese, not apples, Vicky

This is the most ridiculous thing I've EVER done!

We can't dance with each other

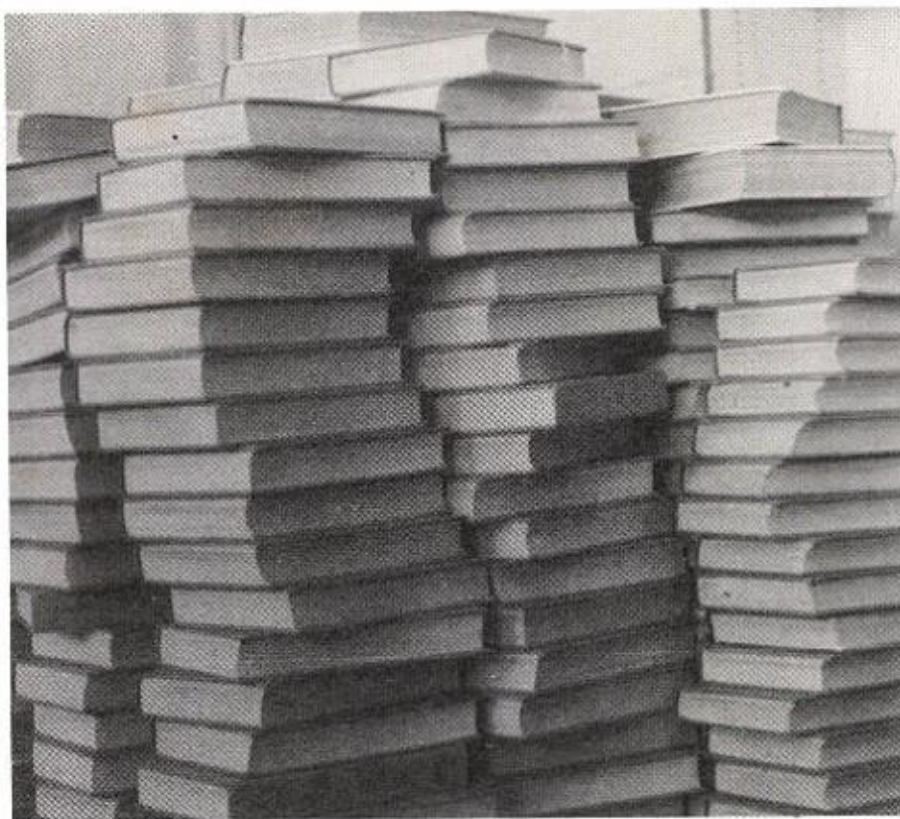

I'm gonna break down that door.

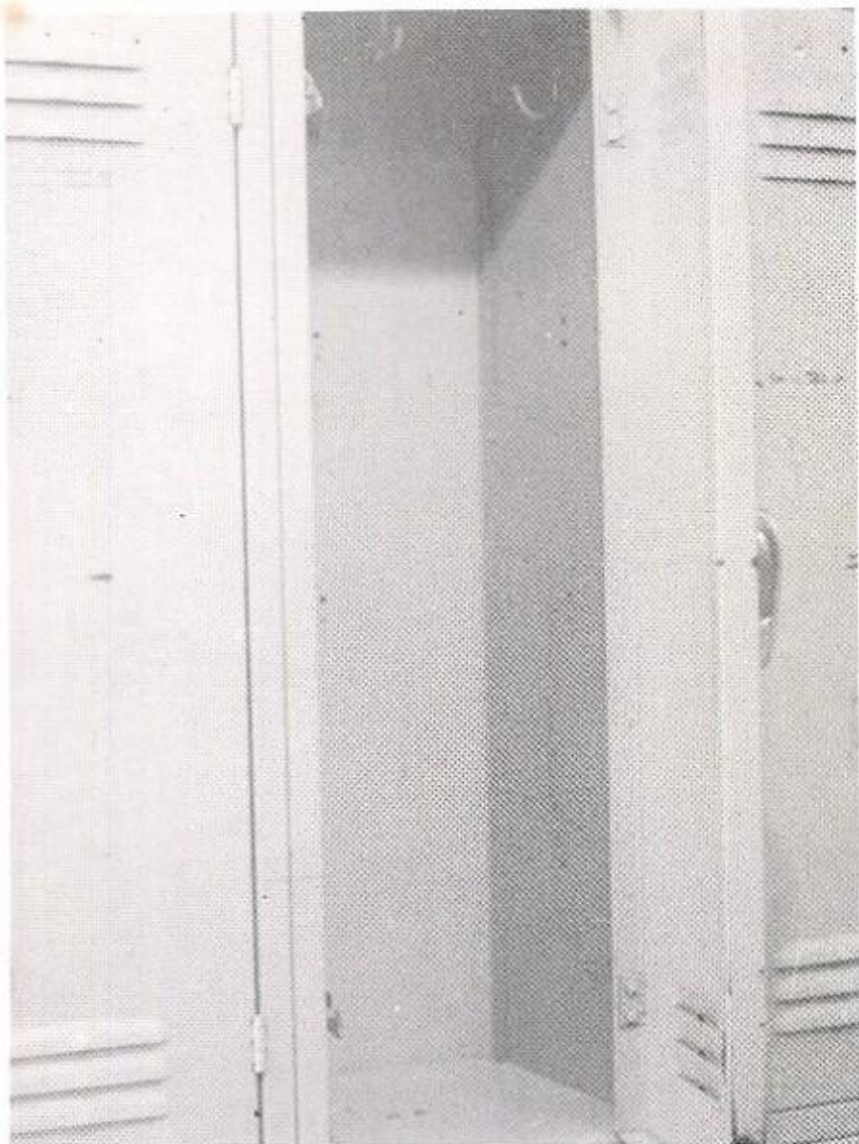

Them's fightin' words!

The end is a mad rush . . .

. . . books handed in . . .

. . . lockers emptied . . .

. . . the bell rings . . .

Dag gone it! It's over!

You mean, that's all?

Time is too slow for those who wait, too fast for those who are afraid, too long for those who grieve, and much too short for those who are happy.

But for those who love mankind and work for the good of their fellow creatures, time remains an eternity.

. . . and this is The Way We Were
